Wendy Weeks McFaddan Obituary

Wendy Weeks McFaddan, a beacon of courage and selflessness, passed away peacefully in Coco Beach Florida surrounded by her family on April 15, 2025, at the age of 63. Born in Rochester, NY, on October 17, 1961, Wendy's thoughtful nature and enduring spirit touched the lives of all who knew her.

Wendy's early life in Rochester was filled with the promise of a bright future. She was born at St. Mary's Hospital and later attended Gates Chili High School. Her drive for knowledge led her to the Rochester Institute of Technology, where she earned a bachelor's degree that would serve as the foundation for her remarkable career.

Wendy answered the call of duty by joining the United States Navy in 1986. Her exemplary service to her country was highlighted by her first station as a Lt. Commander in Key West, FL, where her leadership skills honed her commitment to excellence. Wendy's military career spanned 17 years, during which she remained a steadfast protector of the values she held dear.

Wendy's heart found its counterpart in Timothy McFaddan. The couple returned to Key West where they were united in marriage, beginning a new journey of shared adventures and mutual support. Together, Wendy and

Timothy crafted a life filled with joy, laughter, and the warm embrace of a loving family.

Wendy is predeceased by her parents, William Weeks and Mary Nichols, as well as her sister Rebecca Murashige. Her legacy is carried on by her devoted husband, Timothy, and her bonus daughters, Allison (Michaelangelo) Mesina, Beth (Michael) Frederick, and Carole (Andrew Greiner) McFaddan. Wendy's love extended to her six bonus grandchildren, Sophia, Miles, Zoe, Connor, Logan, and Henry, who will forever cherish the memories of their grandmother's endless love and guidance. She also leaves behind her sister, Gloria Barton, and several nieces and nephews, all of whom were blessed by her presence in their lives.

Wendy's interests were as diverse as they were passionate. She was a woman of many pursuits, each one undertaken with the same fervor and dedication that characterized her service in the Navy. Her courage was not only evident on the field of duty but also in the way she approached every challenge and opportunity in life.

Wendy's selfless nature was evident in every aspect of her life. She was also a woman who chose her path making corrective course changes as obstacles presented themselves. Yet her thoughtfulness of others was a strong reminder of the beauty of consideration and the impact one person can have on the lives of the many around her.

In remembering Wendy, we are reminded of the words of Edna St. Vincent Millay suggesting a passionate approach to life, even if it means a shorter, more intense duration.

"My candle burns at both ends
It will not last the night;
But ah, my foes, and oh, my friends -
It gives a lovely light."

The idiom "my candle burns at both ends" reflects on someone working or living life intensely and exhaustively, sacrificing time and resources in the pursuit of a full life.

Wendy's journey through life was marked by her unwavering bravery, her boundless generosity, and her capacity for love. As we bid her farewell, we take solace in knowing that her story does not end here but continues in the hearts of those she has left behind. Her light will never dim, and her memory will always be a source of inspiration and comfort to us all.

Family will receive friends on Tuesday, April 29, 2025 from 5:30 - 6:30 pm at Fowler Funeral Home Inc. 340 West Ave., Brockport where a funeral service will follow at 6:30 pm. Interment with Military Honors will be held at 11am on Wednesday, April 30, 2025 in Lakeview Cemetery, 4988 S. Lake Rd.,

Brockport, NY 14420.

I remember hanging around with Wendy and her cousin Natalie (my best friend growing up) in Brockport. Sometimes the three of us would go to Wendy's lake cottage for the day. It was a lot of fun and it brings back happy memories. New memories were mad...
